

Athletes Code of Conduct

Athletes must meet and maintain the following requirements in regard to their conduct during any activity associated either directly or indirectly with your involvement in the sport of athletics (including, but not restricted to the activities of training, competing, and team memberships) whether or not such activity is held or sanctioned by Athletics WA.

- Respect the rights, dignity and worth of fellow athletes;
- Refrain from any form of harassment of others;
- Do not accept inappropriate behaviour from others;
- Respect the talent, potential and development of fellow athletes and competitors;
- Abide by the rules and respect the decision of the officials, making all appeals through formal process and respecting the final decision;
- Maintain high personal behaviour standards at all times;
- Demonstrate a high degree of individual responsibility especially when dealing with persons under 18 years of age, as your words and actions are an example;
- At all times maintain an appropriate relationship with your coach;
- Care for and respect the equipment provided to you as part of your program;
- Be frank and honest with your coach concerning illness and injury and your ability to train fully within the program requirements;
- Be honest in your attitude and preparation to training;
- Cooperate with coaches and staff in development of programs to adequately prepare you for competition at the highest level;
- Comply with all policies as published and adopted by Athletics WA; and
- Understand the repercussions if you breach, or are aware of any breaches of, this Code of Conduct.
